Re: "Learner-Centered Education Affect for Madrasah Teacher Personality Competence: The Cases of Project-Based Learning Methods" [ID#5178]

Dear Syahraini Tambak, Muhajir Muhajir, Desi Sukenti,

Thank you for submitting the above manuscript to International Journal of Religion. We have now collected together the reports of the referees and we are happy to inform you that we have accepted your paper for publication in International Journal of Religion. Please find the reviewer comments and scores at the bottom of this email.

Please pay attention to these comments when preparing your final manuscript. Please also note that your manuscript sharply expresses the main argument(s) and clearly establishes its relevance in relation to the wider literature on the subject by including appropriate references. This includes the relevant work has been previously published in International Journal of Religion. The final version must bear full author affiliations and addresses on the first page followed by the manuscript with abstract, references and -if applicable- appendix. Please check the author guidelines and previously published articles to see the housestyle. In text citations and list of references must be consistently formatted according to the style guides of APA / MLA or Harvard. You can find the style guidelines on our website. Please make sure you get your final manuscript cleared of language errors and presented at its best form. Feel free to seek professional copy-editing/proofreading help if needed. TPLondon do not offer such services but use external partners including <https://loveyouart.com/index.php/product/proofreading/>.

Once we have received the final version, it will be moved to production and when scheduled to appear in a forthcoming issue, you will receive a copy for a final check before it is published.

Dear Managing Editor:
 Dr. Harper Smith

We extend our greetings and prayers that the Editor of the International Journal of Religion is healthy and successful in carrying out his daily activities.

Furthermore, we would like to inform you that we have paid the publication fee for our manuscript with ID number: IJOR-024-2923, according to the invoice we received from the Editor. We attach herewith proof of publication fee payment; and also the final paper that we have edited.

We would like to thank the Editor for all his kindness and assistance. We pray that this journal will become more and more brilliant day by day.

Best regards,
 Syahraini Tambak.
