Dear Editor,

We hereby submit the results of the revision of our two manuscripts based on the direction of the editor. We have fixed important things in our script, namely; in the background section, we have emphasized the focus of the research--which is no longer a question sentence; in the discussion section, we have fixed it; and in the reference section, we have included the doi of every manuscript that we refer to, except the book does not have the doi and url.

Thank you.

Best regards,

Syahraini Tambak
