Adapted figures and diagrams must have source at the bottom

Comments from reviewer # 2: Formatting and use of referencing software is recommended

Comments from reviewer # 3: the writing format already followed the template correctly.

Reviewer Comments

Comments from reviewer # 1:

Comments from reviewer # 2: In the abstract highlight the existing problem.

In the introduction part include the significance of your study

The literature review should be systematic, more recent references need to be incorporated. critically review the literature and identify the shortcomings of the past research.

In the Methodology please mention the total population of the study and explain how the sample was derived out of it.

please provide the references for the questionnaire used, check the reliability and validity of the scales.

"The Questionnaire was analyzed using mixed method", please explain in detail the methodology, tools and techniques used.

The conclusion needs to be rewritten, add more explanation, link your results with past studies, provide limitations and future directions. include policy implications in the conclusion part as well.

The similarity index of the paper was found to be 24%, it is mandatory to reduce it to 5% only to get the paper accepted

Comments from reviewer # 3: 1. It needs to be added in the background regarding the uniqueness of this application compared to other similar applications

2. Explain in the limitations of the study why this application can only be used for one semester and explain why this application is only limited to students, not to other cell phone users who need applications to improve their English skills

3. Write the sampling technique so that the final sample can be twenty-eight students of the English Language Education Program
