Reviewer A:

Research and literature review on the Utilization of Social Capital in Tourism Object Development in Indonesia is a relevant and important topic in the context of tourism development in Indonesia. However, there are several aspects that need to be considered in critiquing this issue.

Firstly, further consideration is needed on what is meant by "social capital" in the context of tourism object development. This concept may require a clearer definition and a deeper understanding of how social capital can be applied in the practice of tourism development.

Secondly, it is important to consider the factors influencing the utilization of social capital in tourism object development, such as cultural, economic, political, and environmental factors. A more in-depth

UTILIZATION OF SOCIAL CAPITAL IN TOURISM OBJECT DEVELOPMENT IN INDONESIA

Abstract

This research aims to identify and analyze the use of social capital in developing the tourist attractions in Kampar Regency. The Covid 19 pandemic had an impact on tourist attractions; the problem was that the number of tourists visiting dropped drastically, which caused the economic condition of the surrounding community to decline. The lack of government attention means that communities around tourist attractions must take the initiative to develop these tourist attractions by strengthening social capital. These conditions require the community to be more active and participative in utilizing social capital to develop the potential of these tourist attractions. This research focuses on the two most potential tourist attractions that the
